Torrance Grad Wins Chemistry Honors at ECC

Gary E. Hakanson, chemical engineering major at El Camino College will receive the general chemistry "Handbook of Chemistry and Physics" award at the semi-annual Awards Banquet, June 1. The sophomore was selected as the most outstanding Chemistry 1A student at El Camino College for the current academic year. William T. Mooney Jr., assistant director of instruction at the college announced today.

Hakanson will represent El Camino in the Chemical Rubber Publishing Company's annual achievement award program. He will compete this month in a two and a half hour examination in competition with the general chemistry award winners from most other colleges in the seven western states.

A graduate of Torrance High School in 1955, Hakanson will receive his A.A. degree from El Camino College next month. From El Camino he intends to transfer to the University of Southern California or enter the Naval Air program in jet pilot training at Pensacola, Fla.

The award winner, 20, resides at 2720 Gramercy Ave. While attending El Camino he studied under instructors Leo Kallan, James Campbell and Jack Hileman of the chemistry department.

Hakanson has taken an active part in sports while attending El Camino, and is one of the leading pitchers of this year's Warrior baseball team.

Previous winners of the award were Don McColom, 1958, and Jerry Buchholz, 1957.

Belond Company Construction to Start Here

Ground was broken Tuesday, for the new Belond Muffler plant in the Santa Fe Industrial Park near the civic center, Building Superintendent Lee Schless revealed this week.

The building, which will cost nearly $500,000, will be constructed by Ernest W. Hahn Co.

Schless also announced that he has gone over preliminary plans for the $15,000,000 AIREsearch plant on 190th St. between Crenshaw Blvd. and Arlington Ave., and he also expects plans soon for the R. C. Mahon steel fabricating plant on Monterey St., near Crenshaw Blvd.

Wife Arrested During Trial of Her Husband

A wife was arrested on forgery charges here, Tuesday, while she was attending the preliminary hearing of her husband on similar charges.

Nabbed in Torrance Municipal Court was Mrs. Madeline Mae Williams, 24, of 1333 W. Anaheim St., Harbor City, whose husband, Elmo, 32, was defendant in a forgery hearing.

Det. Sgt. Mickey Fischer and Det. Gene Erbetta, who made the arrest, said that the woman allegedly opened bank accounts under fictitious names and passed checks to the amount of $1000.

She is also charged with using the driver's license of another woman for identification.

Nab Bunco Suspect

Tom Vienna who allegedly bilked a Torrance real estate saleswoman out of $50 after buying a Palos Verdes mansion with a bouncing check, was arrested in Los Angeles this week.

The suspect, a smooth-talking man with a long criminal record, was arrested following a stellar bunco scheme, detectives said.

Red Cross Post

Mrs. Marily Tennant, wife of Major Jack L. Tennant, personnel officer at Misawa Air Base, Japan, has been named American Red Cross volunteer chairman of first aid and water safety at Misawa.

Mrs. Tennant, of 18510 Illinois Court, Torrance, became a first aid instructor soon after her arrival in the Far East last year.
